

Supporting and Growing the Orthodox Church in the Midwest

Across the Metropolis of Chicago, clergy and lay leaders are not waiting for change, but stepping forward to create it by serving the Church in new and thoughtful ways. Supporters of the Greek Orthodox Metropolis of Chicago Foundation are such leaders who, above all else, desire to preserve their faith over generations.

The Foundation's purpose is to sustain an endowment for the Metropolis of Chicago that will provide long-term financial support for the Metropolis' mission and vision.

If you are thinking seriously about your legacy, and believe that we can't wait to support and grow our faith in Christ, please contact the Foundation today!

The time is ripe for change; the work of the Foundation is needed now more than ever!

THE WALL STREET JOURNAL

“...Orthodox parishes have experienced a ‘surge in vitality’ since 2020, measured not only by growth in membership but by other indicators including church attendance, financial giving, enrollment in religious education and participation in parish activities beyond worship. Prominent among the characteristics of these parishes...is a higher-than-average share of converts.”
